

REGULATIONS

MONTREAL INTERNATIONAL CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL

26th edition February 25th to March 5th, 2023

01. Objectives

The FIFEM is an independent and competitive Festival whose goal is to promote quality films from around the world to its young audience.

02. Registration

The Deadline for entries is December 19th, 2022. At this date, the Festival must have received:

- A DVD screener (or online link). In order to be considered, all films that are in a language other than French or English must be subtitled;
- The completed entry form.

03. Selection

Only DVDs and online links are accepted for pre-selection.

A filmmaker, producer or distributor can submit a film.

Film selection is at the Festival's discretion and the final decision will be sent in writing.

04. Shipping procedure

The DVD screener should be sent by mail with the inscription: « For cultural purposes only. No commercial value », before December 19th, 2022 to the following address:

FIFEM

4067, St-Laurent Blvd., suite 400-A
Montreal, Qc, Canada, H2W 1Y7
Tel.: +1 (514) 284-9388

You can also send us a link at info@fifem.com.

Should the film be selected, we will contact you concerning the shipping of the screening copy.

09. Requirements for the Retrospective / Tribute / Other sections

This section is not open for submissions. The Festival will invite films to be presented in this section for their exceptional qualities.

10. Juries and Awards

The Festival organisers will nominate three juries. The Professional International Jury will be composed of professionals from the film industry; two-thirds of the jury members will be coming from outside Canada. The Festival Programming Director will assist in the Jury's deliberation, but will not have the right to vote.

The Professional Jury will grant the following awards:

- Grand Prix de Montréal;
- INIS Prize;
- Best short film.

The Children's Jury (composed of five children aged from 10 to 13 years), will grant the following awards:

- Le Grand Prix de Montréal;
- Best short film.

The INIS Jury will grant the INIS Prize to a film in competition with exceptionally innovative qualities. The public will be voting for the People's Choice Award, which can be won by any film presented at the Festival (Official Competition, Out of Competition and all other sections).

11. Shipping and insurance of the screening copy

Prints of participating films must arrive at Festival office before Friday, February 3rd, 2023.

Screening copies of films from the official competition should be sent prepaid.

Specific shipping instructions will be provided by the Festival's Print Traffic Coordinator approximately one month prior to Festival dates.

A pro forma invoice should be affixed on the outside of the box to facilitate customs clearance.

A notice of dispatch should be sent to the Festival by e-mail or fax, indicating:

- Film title;
- Film format (DCP, Blu-ray, DVD);
- Date of shipment;
- Name of transport service (Fedex, DHL, etc.);
- Air Waybill or tracking number.

12. Excerpts for television

Excerpts of the films participating in the Festival may be broadcast on television for media coverage of FIFEM and/or FIFEM advertising purposes. The length of excerpts will not exceed 2 minutes and a special permission will be asked to the producer.

13. Withdrawal of a film

A film CANNOT be withdrawn from the Festival once submitted. Any person submitting a film agrees to Festival regulations and commits to having the film screened in the Festival under these conditions.
